

Weekly Quiz

1. True or false, Jacinda Ardern, is the first female prime minister to speak at the upper marae at Waitangi?
2. Which year was the Treaty of Waitangi signed?
  - a. 1810
  - b. 1840
  - c. 1896
3. The Opening Ceremony of the Winter Olympics was held at the weekend. In which country are the 2018 Games being held?
  - a. South Korea
  - b. China
  - c. Japan
4. Who was named the Supreme Winners at the Halberg Awards last week?
  - a. The All Blacks
  - b. Team New Zealand
  - c. The Black Ferns
5. What is South Africa's capital city Cape Town, going to run out of on "day zero"?
  - a. petrol
  - b. water
  - c. electricity
6. This year's Karaka Sales recorded the second-highest turnover ever. What type of animal is sold at the Karaka sales?
  - a. cows
  - b. sheep
  - c. horses
7. Why have West Coasters been left cleaning up a mess recently?
  - a. a small tornado ripped through the area causing damage to buildings
  - b. large waves from a storm had uncovered rubbish from an old dump located near the coast
  - c. a recycling truck overturned and crashed into the grounds of a primary school
8. Which team won the most watched sporting event in the world, The Super Bowl?
  - a. Philadelphia Eagles
  - b. Dallas Cowboys
  - c. New England Patriots
9. The 34th New Zealand Census will be held this month. What is the Census?
  - a. it is a television show in which celebrities complete challenges to raise money for charities
  - b. it is a sports challenge involving New Zealand's rural towns
  - c. it is a questionnaire sent to all households that collects data about New Zealanders
10. True or false, Jacinda Ardern is the first pregnant Prime Minister in history?
11. The International Olympic Committee has refused to allow 15 athletes to attend the Pyeongchang Winter Games, despite the athletes' doping bans being overturned by Courts. What country are the athletes from?
  - a. India
  - b. China
  - c. Russia
12. The Album of the Year Grammy Award was recently won by who?
  - a. Kendrick Lamar
  - b. Jay Z
  - c. Bruno Mars
13. The Berlin Wall has now been gone longer than the 10,315 days it stood. In which country was the Berlin Wall?
  - a. Germany
  - b. Russia
  - c. France
14. The US stock exchange experienced a dramatic drop last week. What is the US stock market known as?
  - a. Downing Street
  - b. Wall Street
  - c. Ramsey Street
15. Celebrity footballer, David Beckham, recently launched his new team to play in the Major League Soccer competition. In which US city will it be based?
  - a. Chicago
  - b. Los Angeles
  - c. Miami

Weekly Quiz - Visual

What type of car is shown in this photo from last week?
a. Ford
b. Tesla
c. Mazda

What character does this man play?

In which country are emergency workers dealing with this situation?
a. Japan b. The Philippines c. Taiwan

Which country has this flag?

In which sport is this Kiwi the current World Champion?
a. boxing
b. shot put
c. snooker

Weekly Quiz - Answers

- True or false, Jacinda Ardern, is the first female prime minister to speak at the upper marae at Waitangi?
True - Jacinda Ardern held hands with Titewhai Harawira while being welcomed on to Te Whare Rūnanga at the Treaty Grounds. Titewhai Harawira prevented PM Helen Clark from speaking on the marae at Waitangi in 1998 because she was a woman.
- Which year was the Treaty of Waitangi signed?
b. 1840 - Tiriti o Waitangi was signed on February 6 1840, by representatives of the British crown and various North Island Maori chiefs.
- The Opening Ceremony of the Winter Olympics was held at the weekend. In which country are the 2018 Games being held?
a. South Korea - The games have already encouraged several peaceful actions between South Korea and North Korea, including their athletes walking into the Opening Ceremony under a shared Korean flag. Seoul, the capital of South Korea hosted the Summer Olympics in 1988.
- Who was named the Supreme Winners at the Halberg Awards last week?
b. Team New Zealand - It is the second time Team New Zealand have won the supreme Halberg award, after they also claimed the gong for their first America's Cup triumph in 1995.
- What is South Africa's capital city Cape Town, going to run out of on "day zero"?
b. water - While water restrictions have been in place since last May, the city's water supply is expected to completely run out by mid-April. That day is being referred to as "day zero".
- This year's Karaka Sales recorded the second-highest turnover ever. What type of animal is sold at the Karaka sales?
c. horses - More than 900 horses were sold at Karaka for a total $97 million in 2018. That's up from $82m last year but didn't reach the record $111m set in 2008. One colt sold for $1.025m.
- Why have West Coasters been left cleaning up a mess recently?
b. large waves from a storm had uncovered rubbish from an old dump located near the coast — A social media call for volunteers resulted in hundreds of West Coasters turning out for a mass clean up after the storm spewed plastic bags from a nearby rubbish dump across a Greymouth beach.
- Which team won the most watched sporting event in the world, The Super Bowl?
a. Philadelphia Eagles - The Philadelphia Eagles beat the New England Patriots 41-33. Justin Timberlake provided the half-time entertainment including performing a tribute to the late Prince.
- The 34th New Zealand Census will be held this month. What is the Census?
c. it is a questionnaire sent to all households that collects data about New Zealanders - Letters are due to arrive in households from February 23 for the country's 34th census, which takes a snapshot of the people of New Zealand and the places we live for Statistics NZ.
- True or false, Jacinda Ardern is the first pregnant Prime Minister in history?
False - She is the second. The first was Benazir Bhutto, the Prime Minister of Pakistan from 1988 to 1990. The Prime Minister's baby is due in June.
- The International Olympic Committee has refused to allow 15 athletes to attend the Pyeongchang Winter Games, despite the athletes' doping bans being overturned by Courts. What country are the athletes from?
c. Russia - The 13 active athletes and two retired athletes working in support roles were among 28 athletes whose bans were overturned recently. The IOC said as-yet unpublished new evidence gave rise to new doping suspicions about the athletes.
- The Album of the Year Grammy was recently won by who?
c. Bruno Mars - The Grammy Awards were again criticised for its lack of female winners. Only 17 awards (out of a total of 86) went to women or female-fronted bands.
- The Berlin Wall has now been gone longer than the 10,315 days it stood. In which country was the Berlin Wall?
a. Germany - During the early years of the Cold War, thousands of East Germans fled to democratic West Germany through West Berlin. In response, the Communist East German authorities built a wall that totally encircled West Berlin. The 155km, 3.6-metre-high concrete and barbed wire divider was built on 13 August 1961.
- The US stock exchange experienced a dramatic drop last week. What is the US stock market known as?
b. Wall Street - Wall Street experienced a partial recovery the following day. New Zealand's stock exchange the NZX50 opened down 1.9 per cent after dodging the worst of the global correction thanks to the Waitangi Day holiday on Tuesday.
- Celebrity footballer, David Beckham, recently launched his new team to play in the Major League Soccer competition. In which US city will it be based?
c. Miami - Beckham exercised an option in his contract with former side LA Galaxy to buy an expansion franchise in 2014. He said "I promise you the team we will bring into the league will be the best team." The name of the team has not yet been revealed.

VISUAL ANSWERS

- b. Tesla - The red electric convertible was sent into space aboard SpaceX's brand new Falcon Heavy rocket during a successful test flight on Tuesday. The car will now sail away to the asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter. Elon Musk is the billionaire entrepreneur behind SpaceX, Tesla and The HyperLoop.
- The Black Panther - The highly anticipated film is fast becoming one of considerable cultural significance for black communities in America because of its cast and themes. Several campaigns have launched to try and make sure every black child in America that wants to, gets to see the film.
- c. Taiwan - A major earthquake resulted in damage on the eastern coast of the island nation including several toppled buildings including this one in Hualien that was propped up with mobile cranes.
- South Africa
- b. shot put - Tom Walsh is the current World Champion. He will be looking for Gold at the upcoming Commonwealth Games